Grace Family Church, Sacramento

By God's grace, we celebrated the ordination to pastoral ministry of brother Sergei Nyagova. Vyacheslav Tsvirinko, Ivan Osielsko, Vasily Zavorotny, and Andrey Nesterenko attended the ordination. We had a joyful spiritual communion. There were a lot of flowers, smiles, hugs, and at the end - a traditional plov and sweets for all.

Vasily Zavorotny, deputy chief pastor of the church.

MAKING A COVENANT WITH THE LORD

Baptisms in Sacramento Churches

Even today, the Lord saves those who sincerely repent, and attaches them to his Church. On June 6, at the Sacramento River, there was a celebratory service with a choir and brass band: 25 young people from the Russian Baptist Church of Bryte were baptized.

On June 7, Second Slavic Baptist Church held a baptism: 17 souls made a covenant with the Lord. On the same day, Third Slavic Church baptized 11 young people. God bless them all and help them be faithful to him till the end!

Baptism in the Missionary Church of Naples

The church in Naples also had a baptism on June 14, 2015 at the central beach. Young people made a covenant with the Lord, solemnly declaring: "I promise to be faithful to God until the end of my life" (1 Peter 3:21)

Many people who found themselves on the beach, approached and asked what was happening. There was a sermon on the importance of being faithful to God, to die to sin and live to righteousness

MINISTRY IN ENGLISH

The Russian Baptist Church of Bryte began leading a new English service in June of this year, which is held on Sundays at 11:30 am. This is a good example for other Slavic communities of our Association: youth, for whom English is a native language, will now be able to not only receive instruction in a plain language, but also have the opportunity to invite their English-speaking friends to church.

Women's Retreat

On June 12-14, 2015 in Sierra Pines Camp, there was a retreat for women "Moms in prayer." The theme of the camp was, "To live and walk in the Spirit" (Gal. 5:25). About a hundred sisters (many of whom are young mothers with small children) come to rest there physically and strengthen their spiritual lives.

The main speaker of the event was Sharon Gamble of New Jersey, director of international organization "Moms in prayer." The service was also attended by guests from Hawaii, Natalya Onishchenko, and Ukraine, Lyudmila Zankovsky.

Sharon Gamble spoke about how the mother's prayer life affects her children, and emphasized the importance for every woman to have a special time alone with God. Vera Kitsen, Chairman of the Women's Ministries, told about the sister's retreat in Denver. Vyacheslav Tsvirinko shared a word on Sunday morning.
